

HINRICH OUT OF IT.

Declines the Shepard Nomination for County Register.

Enlisted for Schieren's Term and Feels Bound to Serve It Out.

Cotton Broker Henry Bentz Substituted for Him on the Ticket.

The Shepard wing of the Democratic party in Kings County last night lost a nominee on their third county ticket in the person of Frederick W. Hinrichs, the present Registrar of Arrears.

Mr. Hinrichs was nominated by the Shepards for County Register to run against Granville W. Harman, Republican, and Michael J. Cummings, the regular Democrat.

Mr. Hinrichs has sent the following letter to Charles J. Patterson, Mr. Shepard's right-hand man, which gives his reasons for declining to run. In it he writes:

"Though this is the kind of fight which would suit my temperament, I am inclined to believe that it is not in the interest of the party to have it. The nomination has signally failed this year in its duty to the city and the present situation is such that it is not fit, though why I, a Democrat, should fail well. It looks now, unless good citizens resolve to do their duty, that the party, and the city, will return to the old order of things next year, and that, alas, by reason of the split in the party, the Republicans in their full strength will have this year exhibited."

"If such fully succeed with the public, the result of good government must lose heart. The folly is hardly to be credited. But so it is."

In complying with Mr. Schieren's request to go to office, I bound myself to think, to him and to Brooklyn, to continue with his administration to the end, and to serve him as far as I can. I should no longer desire my services and advice. He has certainly sustained me in all that I have sought to do, and it would not be right to accept this nomination so honorably given to me and at the same time retain my position.

Many of the who know me well and understand what work I have accomplished and am still to accomplish in this cause, will be sorry to see me leave, and I am sorry to leave, but I have now no place to go but to the city of New York, where I have been invited to go to office, and I am bound to do my best to promote the election of my honorable man who may be named for me.

The man named to succeed Hinrichs on the ticket is Henry Bentz, a cotton broker of 700 Broadway, a member of the Executive Committee of the Shepard Democracy, Vice-President of the General Committee of the Shepard Democracy, and was at one time President of the New York Produce Exchange.

Mr. Bentz was one of the early settlers in the Bedford district, Brooklyn, and lived there when it was known as Bedford, and was a member of the Brooklyn Consolidation League.

It is understood Mr. Bentz has accepted the nomination.

IN M'KANE'S OLD DISTRICT.

A Wrangle in the Court Over the Supervisor's Term Probable.

The Republican party of the Thirty-first Ward of Brooklyn, formerly the town of Gravesend, held its Convention last night at the Victoria Hall, on Surf Avenue. James E. Gilkinson, who runs a concert hall on the old pier during the warm season, was nominated for Supervisor.

The man named to succeed Hinrichs on the ticket is Henry Bentz, a cotton broker of 700 Broadway, a member of the Executive Committee of the Shepard Democracy, Vice-President of the General Committee of the Shepard Democracy, and was at one time President of the New York Produce Exchange.

Mr. Bentz was one of the early settlers in the Bedford district, Brooklyn, and lived there when it was known as Bedford, and was a member of the Brooklyn Consolidation League.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Hop Rose paid a dear price for Clifford when he gave $25,000 for him. The colt is in the pink of condition just now, but he does not rank high class.

Domingo, Henry of Navarre and Sir Walter have beaten him in succession. As Rose has supported his colt with confidence, it is probable that Clifford owes him $50,000 to day.

Doggett rode an excellent race on Sir Walter in the second yesterday. Knowing that Clifford and Hoppe had but half speed of him he tipped the pair from the start with the result that both were ready to drop at the end of a mile. Clifford finished game under punishment, but few horses can beat Sir Walter out when it comes down to a hard drive.

He was beaten by a half length, and does not rank anywhere near high class, and the streak of yellow that was known to be part of his make up showed yesterday. Jack McDonald lost heavily on the colt.

The Wale-Awake Republican Club of 231 East Twelfth street, will have a parade and banner raising Thursday evening.

Crooks Discussed a New York Robbery in a Jersey City Jail.

William Robinson, John Hennessy, George Raymond and William Rafferty, New York crooks, were arrested by the police of Jersey City a few days ago on Exchange place, as suspicious characters. They were taken to the First precinct police station and locked up. The men are to be held awaiting the result of an investigation in Harrisburg.

Mr. Patterson received this letter yesterday, and last night the Executive Committee of the Shepard wing met and selected Mr. Hinrichs's successor on the strength of it.

The man named to succeed Hinrichs on the ticket is Henry Bentz, a cotton broker of 700 Broadway, a member of the Executive Committee of the Shepard Democracy, Vice-President of the General Committee of the Shepard Democracy, and was at one time President of the New York Produce Exchange.

Schoonmakers' Latest New Jersey Love Gets Him Into Jail.

(Special to The Evening World.)

HANCOCK, N. Y., Oct. 16.—Detective Hutchinson of Belvidere, N. J., has arrested Charles Schoonmaker, of Palisades, Sullivan County, on a charge of bigamy.

Two years ago Schoonmaker married Miss Nettie Goff, of Bridgewater, and a short time afterwards he came here and married another woman. He has since been a fugitive, and the man who was heard of him was at Belvidere, N. J., where he married a third wife, who is the cause of his being indicted.

Bled of a Knife Wound.

Antonio Vito, immigrant, aged 20, of 20 Prince street, died in St. Vincent's Hospital this morning. He was stabbed in the abdomen Saturday night in front of 217 West 14th street, between Broadway and Third avenue. The Committee in compliance with the terms of his will gave the last respects to his remains, which were interred at Jerome Park cemetery.

Judge Simmons says that the talk of the Washington Park officials concerning fear of indictment is all bosh. The real facts are that he was exonerated and the members want to realize.

Cycling Firms Secure Space.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the National Board of Trade of Cycle Manufacturers held at Madison Square Garden recently, the statement of the members of the National Board of Trade was as follows:

"The racing associations have a nice surplus, and it is only fair that part of that should go to the members of the Board. Mr. Dowdy, the man who was held, but he informed that a man could bet all the money he desired. Hand-books will probably be made, as at Jerome Park three years ago."

About the Supervision, many in the town claim that all nominations for that office will be held at that time. Mr. Bennett was elected to that office by the Citizens' Reform League last November for two years.

Gilkinson claims that as the town has been annexed to Brooklyn, Mr. Bennett must retire from office on the last day of the year.

"I will hold the office of Supervisor of the Thirty-first Ward of Brooklyn," said Mr. Bennett to-day, "until Jan. 1, 1895, unless ordered by the courts to retire."

GRACE TO GUIDE THE LXX.

Jerome is Nominally Manager, but the Ex-Mayor Will Direct Him.

in the Lehigh Valley Railroad. I was troubled severely with headache and frequently had to be absent from duty. It was accompanied by a loss of appetite, and I was unable to sleep. I read about Hood's Saraparilla and decided to get a supply. After the first bottle I felt a change, and now it is a fact I never again cared for my Headache.

As for an appetite, I can eat almost any time, whereas before I often felt hungry, and when I went to bed I was able to sleep.

Mr. D. B. McGehee eat. When I commenced taking Hood's Saraparilla I weighed 160 lbs.; now I weigh 200 lbs. D. B. HOOD, MAN, Packerton, Pa. Be sure to get HOOD'S.
